ASSEMBLY OF CORRESPONDENCE

Clip the following together:

- Blue memo form should be put on all letters going to the DCI, the DDCI, and the Executive Director for signature, approval, or forwarding. The purpose of this form is a good summary, brief and to the point. (Used primarily at the Deputy Directorate level.)
- 2. Thin tissue on the top of the bond original for protection in processing. (External correspondence only)
- 3. The bond original and courtesy copy (as necessary).
- 4. The Registry copy (official copy) which includes signed concurrences as appropriate. (For the DD/S, concurrences are signed on the chrono copy.)
- 5. Background material or references which are necessary to the subject.
- All other carbon copies for distribution to other offices (to be clipped together).
 - a. Forward all copies to the DD/S Registry; they handle the dissemination.
 - b. Staple the properly addressed buck slips for the return copies (or for any copies). Never staple original pages of a letter. (Memos may be stapled.)
- 7. DCI signature tabs should not be attached in the office of origin. They will be attached in 0-DD/S. 6/DC/
- 8. All envelopes, mailing slips, and document receipts.
 - a. Attach envelopes properly addressed.
 - b. Correspondence going to another Government agency does not require a franked envelope (it goes by messenger). Indicate room or Stop number so the messenger has no difficulty in delivering it. Obtain Stop number from Mail and Courier Branch, x5802.
 - c. If the document is classified, use two opaque envelopes.

 The inner envelope should be addressed and stamped with the highest classification of the documents. If opaque envelopes are not available, wrap bond paper around the inner classified envelope. The classification is never stamped on the outer envelope.

ASSEMBLY OF CORRESPONDENCE con.

d. If the document is classified and going outside the Agency, document receipts must be included. (Documents receipts are also enclosed with TOP SECRET internal correspondence.) The receipts must be filled out to be returned to the office that has the responsibility for dissemination.

MISCELLANEOUS

APPROVAL PAPER

The original and all copies will bear the distribution, even those signed by the DCI, the DDCI, or the Executive Director.

REPORTING OF CONVERSATIONS

This may take the form of a Memorandum of Conversation or a Memorandum for the Record, depending on the circumstances. Only the original and one copy need to be forwarded to the Director.

NUMBERING PARAGRAPHS

Paragraphs are numbered on a memo unless there is only one paragraph. Paragraphs are never numbered on a letter or on a memo to the President. (Memos to the President are double spaced.)

DISTRIBUTION

Indicate the recipient of each copy with a check mark by the proper designation in the distribution. When indicating the distribution of copies of TOP SECRET documents, show in the distribution the exact copy number.

COCRDINATION

It is the responsibility of the originating officer to see that papers are properly coordinated before they reach the Office of the Director.
